January's Theme Scripture

¹² Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³ Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead...

Ladies' Bible Class

Registration for our winter Ladies Bible class will take place on Sunday, January 5, or you can join the class on Wednesday, January 8, at 9:30 am, or the evening class led by Tama Barnes, meeting in Room 242, from 7:00 – 8:00. You can register and purchase your workbook (or pick up your book if purchased already), Job a Story of Unlikely Joy ($15), in the Family Center on January 5.

There will be a class kick-off brunch on Wednesday, January 8, at 9:30 am in the Teen Center. Our own Carol Morgan will be speaking to us that day.

Looking forward to our study of Job using Lisa Harper's book! Our hope is that in looking at Job's life, a godly man who suffered devastating loss, we will find healing and a deeper connection with God; we will meet a God who sees our hardships and welcomes our difficult questions; we will learn to prize God's love and goodness more than our difficulties; and we will witness how our pain can become transformed into something that can be used for God's glory and our comfort.

This class is for women of all ages in all walks of life who have studied the Bible extensively or very little at all. We would love to see MANY new women joining us on the journey this year in Bible class. This is a great opportunity to invite others to come with you!

“He reached down from on high and took hold of me;
he drew me out of deep waters...

He brought me out into a spacious place;
he rescued me because he delighted in me.”
