Thank You

Dear Saturn Road Family,

Thank you for all of your cards, emails, letters, texts and offers of help after my recent stroke. We appreciate you so much.

Love,

Steve Jordan

The wisest human being that ever lived... Solomon said this 1000's of years ago..

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:

*a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to scatter and a time to gather,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away.*

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens.

Seasons... 18 years ago, Cecelia and I began one of these seasons of our lives, when the church family here called on us to serve this church in a special way, calling on me to serve as one of the shepherds of this congregation.

Looking back on these 18 years, you've served along side us through a variety of hills and valleys, celebrations and challenges. You've loved and supported us in ways that the Saturn Road church does like no other church family I know. We've shared times of agreement and times where we did not agree, but always with love and care for each other.

You've been incredibly patient and forgiving with me in these years, trusting that my heart and intent was always for what was best for this church family... even when my methods were less than they should have been. Thank you for your grace.

Serving as one of your shepherds has been one of the greatest honors and privileges of my life. From my youngest days, it's what I wanted to do. Thank you for allowing me to do that here at Saturn Road.

But now, after prayerful reflection, Cecelia and I have come to realize that it is time for a changing of the seasons. Several weeks ago, I informed the shepherds of our decision. And now today, I felt a need to share it with my church family.

Our love and desires for the Kingdom have not diminished. Our love and desires for our church family at Saturn Road have not diminished. We want to continue serving in the congregation, working with the shepherds, for the glory of God and His Kingdom.

Thank you and God bless you all.

Gary Bingham
