" Allow her to re-introduce herself...because clearly, you didn't hear her the first time-first century!" (Matthew 12: 46-50)

What makes the church family unique? In Scripture, belonging to God's people was not just about bloodlines but loyalty, obedience, and faith. From Ruth leaving Moab to follow Israel's God, to Jesus recasting family as those who do the Father's will, the Bible shows us a community knit together not by ancestry but by allegiance to Christ. In this new family, obedience brings blessing, loyalty reshapes our identity, and brothers and sisters are gained even when earthly ties are lost. Come explore how God is re-visioning "family" around Jesus—and what that means for us today.
