Nehemiah 4: Building While Opposed

When opposition rises, and discouragement presses in, Nehemiah 4 reminds us that resistance doesn't mean God is absent—it means the work matters. This message calls us to face both external threats and internal fears with prayerful dependence and practical faith, holding a tool in one hand and a sword in the other. As God is re-centered, fear loses its grip and courage grows. We'll be reminded that discouragement doesn't disqualify us, perfection isn't the goal, and perseverance is the path forward. God rebuilds His people best when we stay faithful, stay connected, and keep building—even while opposed.
