THANK YOU

To my Saturn Road family:

Thank you to all who were such a blessing to Larry and me during his long struggle with Parkinson's Disease. The texts, emails, cards, encouraging words, assistance getting him up and down were noticed and deeply appreciated. For those of you who helped with his celebration service in countless ways (set up, planning, programs, slideshow, furnishing sandwiches, chips, cookies, serving in the kitchen or line, greeting visitors, clean-up, etc.), I am grateful. Amanda Bruce, along with Harold and Tricia Burns' small connect group, spearheaded all the work; thank you with much love. For the many other Saturn Road friends who assisted, please know that the smallest and quietest acts were important and helped make the service special for me, Larry's family and friends who were here. I am grateful for the outpouring of love that honored my Coach so well. He would have enjoyed all the smiles, funny stories, hugs, friends re-connecting and finding positive joy in his victory. To Gary Bingham's small group who pitched in to help with cookies, a special thank you! The kindness, servant love, and caring hearts of so many from my Saturn Road family will be forever remembered with much appreciation.
