Remembering. . . to Look Forward
Nehemiah 12:27-43
Worship, Gratitude, and Hope

In Nehemiah 12:27-43, Israel dedicates Jerusalem's rebuilt wall with joyful, public worship. What God restored, they gave back to Him in gratitude. They remembered His faithfulness through hardship and celebrated together. This message reminds us to dedicate back to God what He has rebuilt among us—with joy and expectation.

We honor Saturn Road's history without idolizing it and choose hope over fear as we look ahead. The future is not a problem to solve, nor a crisis to avoid, but a spiritual journey. This journey invites everyone into deeper discipleship. We begin with prayer—honest, humble, and open—knowing that God only rebuilds people who can learn to tell the truth and offer themselves as living sacrifices for the Holy Spirit's work!
