When Temptation Forms Us Matthew 4:1-11

As we continue our spiritual formation series, we're reminded that temptation doesn't just test our willpower—it reveals what we truly believe about God and ourselves. After His baptism, Jesus enters the wilderness, showing us that seasons of testing often follow moments of affirmation. There, His identity is challenged: "If you are the Son..."—a reminder that temptation often targets who we are.

Rather than striving or performing, Jesus responds with truth, grounding Himself in Scripture. His example shows that testing is not meant to break us, but to form us. As Evagrius Ponticus wrote, "If you pray truly, you are a theologian"—our deepest beliefs are shaped and revealed in how we seek God, not just what we know "intellectually," about him.
