SERMON NOTES

This week, we continue our series by focusing on the practice prayer from Luke 11:1-13. When the disciples asked Jesus how to pray, He did not give them a formula for religious performance, but an invitation into a relationship. Jesus teaches us to approach God as “Father,” reminding us that prayer begins with intimacy, trust, and connection rather than perfection.

Together, we will explore how prayer is less about saying the right words and more about being present with God. Through Jesus’ teaching, we are invited to experience prayer as friendship with the Father who welcomes us, listens to us, and desires to draw near to us. As Teresa of Ávila beautifully wrote, “Prayer is nothing else than an intimate sharing between friends.”
