"A Heart That Sees"

Text: Matthew 9:35–38

This week, we are focusing on the BIG idea of Compassion. Jesus traveled through towns and villages teaching, proclaiming the good news of God's Kingdom, and healing those in need. When He looked at the crowds, He did more than notice them—He truly saw them. Moved with compassion, Jesus recognized their struggles and described them as "harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd."

Compassion is essential to Christlike formation. Jesus not only felt deeply for people; His compassion moved Him toward them in love and action. He then called His disciples to pray that God would send more workers into the harvest—people whose hearts are shaped by the same compassion.

As we follow Christ, our formation should change the way we see others. Before seeking to be understood, we are called to understand. Every person arrives at their circumstances by a different path, carrying burdens and experiences we may not fully comprehend. Together, we will consider what it means to truly "see" people as Jesus sees them and to reflect His active, transforming love in the world.
