SCRIPTURE

The Word of Life

Luke 4:16–21

What happens when God's Word moves from the page into everyday life? This week, we explore how Jesus didn't merely teach Scripture—He embodied it. Standing in the synagogue, Jesus declared that God's promises were being fulfilled in Him, revealing that Scripture is not simply information to be learned but truth that transforms lives.

Together we'll discover how reading God's Word is meant to shape our identity, guide our actions, and draw us into deeper communion with Christ. As we listen, reflect, pray, and respond, Scripture becomes more than words we read—it becomes a life we live.

As the monk Guigo II wrote, “Reading seeks, meditation finds, prayer asks, contemplation tastes.” Join us as we learn to move beyond knowing the Word to living it.
